A One Word Speech. Julius Caesar holds the record for brevity of convincing speech.

The story is told that while Caesar was in the midst of his struggle for the mastery of the Roman empire the soldiers of his favorite Tenth legion mutinied. He appeared before them, and, uttering the one word "Quirites,"

That word means, of course, "citizens," but to the veterans to whom it was addressed it meant a great deal more. It was the special term used in addressing Roman voters assembled in a purely civic capacity, not as soldiers, but as civillans.

To the mutinous soldiers it meant that the great commander, whom they had followed for ten long years from the Alps to the Thames and from the Rhine to the Pyrenees and across the Rubicon, disowned them as soldiers and dismissed them from his victorious

Realizing its meaning, the story goes, the mutineers were appalled. Battle scarred veterans burst into tears, implored their leader to pardon them and inflicted summary punishment upon the inciters of the mutiny as a proof of their repentance.

A Poor Show. An American was describing to an English sportsman the west of the

"Our old time western miner," he "had an ingenuous and simple mind. There was a miner in Montana who rode into Anaconda one day to see an entertainment that had been an-nounced. A Queer Marriage Ceremony. Among the Kherrias of India the marriage ceremony is very funny. Taking a small portion of the hair of the bride and groom in turn from the center of the forehead, the priest draws it down on to the bridge of the nose. Then, pouring oil on the head, he watches it carefully as it trickles down the portion of hair. If the oil runs straight on to the tip of the nose their future will be fortunate, but if it spreads over the forehead or trickles off on either side of the nose, bad luck is sure to follow. Their fortunes told, generally to their own satisfaction, the essential and irrevocable part of the ceremony takes place. Standing up side by side, but with faces strictly averted, the bride and groom mark each other's forehead with "sindur"

Concerning Scotch Pawkiness. A "positively true tale" of Scotch pawkiness is sent us by a naval correspondent. He traveled up to Invernesshire with a Scotsman, on whose taci-turnity he falled, after many efforts, to impinge. The Scotsman still stared dully, fixedly from the train. At last intelligence began to show in his face and grew to ecstasy, and he shouted in his excitement, "Look here, look here, that's whaur it was." His companion rushed to the window. "In you wee town," continued the Scotsman, "I wus charged saxpence for yin cup of cof-

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpleide.

This word of late has been in every one's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who w deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work.
Well, for the information of thousands of people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes," Now "Herpen" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPISIDE premptly destroys; after which the CIDE premptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 19c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
